

BUSINESS OF SUCCESS THRU SPORTS

"The unique thing about Everett Glenn is that he has the athletic knowledge along with business sensibilities all wrapped around a legal mind to promote change! Everett teaches change through provocative thoughts and encourages ownership! Thinking outside of the box where there's no box to be confined in period. Win the game with your abilities which is mostly your mind. The BOSS™ program's goal of impacting student-athletes and helping them influence their non-athlete peers so that they both do better is the type of change I would expect Everett to be leading. I thank God that I had someone like Everett to guide my professional career and consider him a friend for life."
